The Australian Migration Specialists

Australian Training and Student Visas

Australia is one of the best study abroad destinations in the world with Australian educational institutions enjoying a very strong reputation for excellence in the international marketplace and a highly innovative policy plan for the sector. It is the preferred overseas study destination for over 455,000 international students from 190 countries around the world. If you are seeking to improve your skills, the training visa is a short stay visa for recent graduates or people intending to take part in workplace-based training or participate in a professional development training programme in Australia.

Our team of professionals hold over 20 years' experience in migration law. We can advise and assist you in compiling the necessary documents needed for an application for a student or training visa whether you are offshore or in Australia. Speak to one of our registered migration agents today to learn more about training and studying in Australia!
